*The non-refundable Application and Administrative Fee must be submitted at time of application.

A “fee waiver” is available to candidates who meet the requirements.

It is the applicant’s responsibility to clearly show that they meet the minimum qualifications for the position.

Salary: $62,400

Vacancy: This examination is being held to establish an Eligible List to fill all future Full-time vacancies in this title, which may occur during the life of the Eligible List. An eligible may receive only one Permanent appointment from the Eligible List. Once appointed, there will be a probation period of 8-52 weeks based on performance of duties.

Residency Requirements: Candidates must be legal residents in the State of New York for at least one month immediately preceding the date of the written test. Preference in certification for appointment may be given to successful candidates who have been residents of the municipality in which appointment is to be made for at least one month immediately preceding the date of the written test.

Minimum Qualifications:

1. Graduation from a regionally accredited or New York State registered college or university with an Associated Degree in Construction Technology, Business Administration or closely related field and four years of full-time paid experience or its part-time equivalent in the operation or maintenance of buildings which shall have included or been supplemented by two years of supervisory experience. *
2. Graduation from high school or possession of a high school equivalency diploma and six years of full-time paid experience or its part-time equivalent in the operation or maintenance of buildings which shall have included or been supplemented by two years of supervisory experience. *

*Supervisory experience shall be defined as responsibility for the selection, supervision and performance evaluation of staff and the coordination and management of related program activities.

*Note: Your degree must have been awarded by a college or university accredited by a regional, national, or specialized agency recognized as an accrediting agency by the U.S. Department of education/U.S. Secretary of Education. If your degree was awarded by an educational institution outside the United States and its territories, you must provide independent verification of equivalency. A list of acceptable companies who provide this service can be found on the internet at <http://www.cs.ny.gov/jobseeker/degrees.cfm>. You must pay the required evaluation fee

Anticipated Eligibility: Applicants who lack a year of meeting the minimum qualifications by the date of the examination will be admitted conditionally to the examination. However, proof of the additional days' qualification must be submitted prior to the establishment of the eligible list.

Job Description: This is an administrative position and managerial position involving responsibility for the supervision of school district buildings and grounds as well as custodial and maintenance activities to keep the facilities up to acceptable standards of cleanliness and operation. Work is performed under the general supervision of the Director of Business Services with considerable leeway for the use of independent judgement in planning and carrying out details of the work. Supervision is exercised over the work of cleaners, custodial, groundskeepers and maintenance personnel in the school system by inspection, observation, and review of reports.

Background Investigation: Candidates may be subject to a thorough background investigation to determine suitability for appointment. Applicants may be required to authorize access to educational, employment, criminal history and other record checks as part of such investigation. Criminal convictions or other offenses are subject to evaluation and may result in disqualification.

Scopes / Subjects of examination: A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas.

Review and interpretation of plans and specifications, and the preparation of estimates: These questions test for the ability to read and understand typical building plans, layouts, and technical specifications; and for the ability to calculate accurate estimates of material and labor costs.

Operation, construction, alteration, and maintenance of physical plants, including mechanical and electrical equipment: These questions test for knowledge of the methods and materials used in the construction, alteration, maintenance and repair of physical plant facilities including such areas as building foundation and framing, building hardware, insulation, and roofing; and building plumbing, electrical, sanitary, and heating, ventilating, and air conditioning systems.

Maintenance management and energy conservation: These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in managing a building maintenance and energy conservation program including such areas as determining the need for and scheduling building repairs; proper building maintenance techniques; and effective energy conservation practices for buildings, including optimal heating plant and cooling system operation.

Operation and maintenance of heating, ventilating and air conditioning systems: These questions test for knowledge of basic principles, practices and techniques essential to the correct operation and maintenance of heating, ventilating and air conditioning systems, including such areas as air supply and exhaust systems, circulating fan capacities, building ventilation requirements, steam, hot water, and hot air heating systems; boiler operation; the refrigeration cycle, types and characteristics of refrigerants, troubleshooting air conditioning system problems, and proper maintenance of air conditioning systems.

Administrative supervision: These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in directing the activities of a large subordinate staff, including subordinate supervisors. Questions relate to the personal interactions between an upper level supervisor and their subordinate supervisors in the accomplishment of objectives. These questions cover such areas as assigning work to and coordinating the activities of several units, establishing and guiding staff development programs, evaluating the performance of subordinate supervisors, and maintaining relationships with other organizational sections.

Test guide: The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination.
